

Florida A&M University Alumni Association –
Chicago Chapter presents...

“Entrepreneurship for the Employed”

Tips and Strategies for Building Multiple Streams of Income

A Personal and Professional Development seminar for all Chicago area
HBCU graduates and African American Professionals

Saturday, May 17, 2008

11:00 a.m. – 1:00 p.m.

Washington Park Field house – 55th and King Drive

Come and learn first hand from experience entrepreneurs on topics such as:

- Things to know “before you quit your job”
- Financial planning strategies to prepare for entrepreneurship
- Survival skills for new business owners

This dynamic seminar will be led by Clifton Goins IV, author and entrepreneur/owner of Exponential Growth Advisory Services and Adelphos Holdings, LLC. Other outstanding entrepreneurs from the real estate, publishing, network marketing, and consulting service industries will also be on hand to provide practical advice to attendees

For more information:

Go to www.windycityrattlers.com

Email: info@windycityrattlers.com

Call: 630-598-7327

